Dear Dr Robinson,

I am sorry not to have written you earlier but I have had a lot of troublesome matters on hand owing to the loss of my partner. I am glad that the Victoria Institute Volumes were acceptable to you, and that these are equivalent to the cost of our advertisement in The Presbyterian.

If you continue the advertisement a little longer, I shall be willing to pay something for it, if you will let me know.

You ask for a picture, and I now

Enclose my own, but have not one of my late Partner.
This business was established in 1862 by Mr. Richard D. Dickinson, who a little later took a Partner Mr. Charles Higham, and named the firm Dickinson & Higham.
This partnership was dissolved in September 1876, owing to a loss of some £3000 in publishing The Hexaglot Bible, 6 Vols. — I came to Dickinson & Higham in January 1875, and at the dissolution of partnership in 1876, was with Mr. R. D.
Dickinson, when we published a large number of Books for Preachers, i. e. John Trapp's (Puritan) Commentary 5 Vols; Spencer's Things, New & Old, with Cundey's Treasury of Similes,
The Preacher's Homiletical
Commentary, 32 Vols, — Ward
